

RACHEL'S WAR
by Barbara Colley

Harlequin Reader's Choice

January 2007

ISBN: 0-373-19856-6

Front Cover Shout:

Three generations of women bound by secrets...

A DESTINY OF PASSION, HEARTBREAK, AND COURAGE...

Widowed, pregnant, and alone, twenty-year-old Rachel marries a man she barely knows. Jonathan is kind, wealthy, and generous, and for Rachel's hungry heart, love is most wanted. Yet her destiny is shaped by devastating troubles that resonate in her own life and within the lives of her daughter and granddaughter.

Set against the backdrop of fifty years of American wars, this is the story of Rachel, Liz, and Crystal, the men they love, and the private battles that shape the women's lives. Through it all, they come to realize that nothing can break the bonds of love and family.

www.barbaracolley.com